

Jeremiah - Daniel - Nehemiah

The Israelites were allowed back from exile to live in their land again.
The temple in Jerusalem was rebuilt.
Nehemiah organised the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem.

Read Nehemiah 1v1-4 and see what made Nehemiah sad.
What did he feel God wanted him to do about it? _____

[Nehemiah 2v1-5]

What did he become? _____ [Nehemiah 5v14]

Nehemiah finds out about Jerusalem.	Nehemiah 1
Nehemiah gets permission and goes to Jerusalem.	2
Work on rebuilding the wall is started.	3
Opposition is overcome.	4
Nehemiah cares for the people.	5
The city wall is finished.	6
A festival is held in Jerusalem.	8
The people remember their history.	9
They make a new agreement with God.	10
The rebuilding of the walls is celebrated.	12v27-43
Nehemiah changes things that were wrong.	13

The rebuilding of the Temple is written about in Ezra 3-6.
The governor, Zerubbabel, and the high priest, Joshua, were helped by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, whose books also tell about it.
[Ezra 5v1-2]

When the people were back in Jerusalem, they thought back over their history:- how God had loved them, how often they had stopped listening to him and had gone their own way, and how God had forgiven them and given them a fresh start. [Nehemiah 9]

Then they made a new agreement. What did they decide? _____

_____ [Nehemiah 10v28-29]

Who led them in making this agreement? _____
[Nehemiah 10v1]

Nehemiah came to Jerusalem humbly on a donkey. Nehemiah 2v11-13
Jesus came to Jerusalem humbly on a donkey. Matthew 21v5-7

Nehemiah wept about Jerusalem. Nehemiah 1v3-4
Jesus wept about Jerusalem. Luke 19v41-44

Nehemiah was made leader of God's people. Nehemiah 5v14
Jesus was made leader of God's people. Matthew 2v6

The Old Testament story ends with a "renewed Jerusalem" built by Nehemiah. Nehemiah 7v1-3
The New Testament story ends with a "new Jerusalem" built by Jesus. Revelation 21-22

When he was troubled [Nehemiah 1v4], when he was asked what he wanted [Nehemiah 2v4],
when people made fun of him [Nehemiah 4v4],
when enemies planned to attack [Nehemiah 4v8-9],
when people tried to frighten him [Nehemiah 6v9],
and when someone tried to trick him [Nehemiah 6v13-14],
at every step, Nehemiah _____ .
Are you doing the same?